Mines chasing home-opening sweep Monday night, hosting Western Washington at Stermole Stadium.

FRIDAY’S HOME OPENER
The Colorado School of Mines Men’s Soccer team opened its 2019 home slate on Friday night with a 1-0 win over Seattle Pacific at Stermole Stadium. Lucas King scored the Orediggers’ lone goal thanks to the assist from Ben Overholt. Drew Johnson made six saves in goal on the way to his second shutout of the season. As a team, Mines out-shot the Falcons by a margin of 17-9 with 10 shots on goal compared to SPU’s six shots on target. Additionally, the home team dominated corner kicks, earning seven opportunities while Seattle Pacific had just three chances from the corner.

SCOUTING WESTERN WASHINGTON
Western Washington rolls into Golden with an overall mark of 1-2-0 after falling at West Texas A&M on Friday evening. The Vikings also fell to Chico State in Bellingham, Wash., by a score of 2-1 before finding redemption over Sonoma State in a 2-0 victory on opening weekend. Drew Farnsworth is the early man to watch with two of WWU’s three goals on the year. Gerg Cholewa has the other tally while Christian Rotter accounts for the lone assist on the stat sheet. Brandon Wolter is the man in goal with 270 minutes, four saves and three goals against to his name.

UP NEXT
Mines’ men continue a six-game home stand Sept. 20 and 22 and also open RMAC play as the Orediggers host South Dakota Mines and UCCS at Stermole Stadium. Live stats and video of both matches will be available at www.minesathletics.com.

SCANDINAVIAN SAILORS
Western Washington’s nickname is the Vikings. A quick Google search reveals an initial finding that defines Vikings as, “any of the Scandinavian seafaring pirates and traders who raided and settled in many parts of northwestern Europe in the 8th-11th centuries. That would make one ask if WWU was focused more on the pirate part or the trading part. However, if one looks a little deeper, it’s revealed that Viking is actually credited to the Old Norse, vikingr. That breaks down into vik which translates into creek or sea inlet and ingr which ties to the Old English wic, or camp. It just so happens that Bellingham, Wash., the home of WWU, is located directly on a bay just off the Pacific Ocean making Viking far more acceptable and appropriate a nickname at its very root. Vikings did not wear horned helmets and were actually known for their excellent hygiene. And now you know.

THE OREDIGGER CLUB
